4.6	Actions when failing to comply with the requirements
4.6.1	General
	If the accredited CAB fails to conform to the requirements for accreditation, BAB can put in effect one or more of the following actions, depending on how serious the non-compliances are:	CO Director/Quality Manager
	a) Instructions of corrective actions (non-compliances) b) Suspend the accreditation or parts of it c) Withdraw the accreditation or parts of it
	BAB will evaluate which action to be used. When it is necessary to do withdrawals, instructions of corrective actions and/or suspension shall be used first if BAB finds that appropriate. The actions from failure to address issues leading to suspension are given in 4.5.2 below.
	If the CAB implements correction or corrective action to address the non-conforming condition, BAB may also decide that an extraordinary visit to the CAB is required to check that the corrections are satisfactorily implemented.
4.6.2	Failure to successfully address causes of suspension
	BAB can require that the CAB correct the non-conformance within a specified date. If the CAB wishes to keep the accreditation, it must prove that the non-conformance has been successfully addressed to satisfactory level within the time limit.	CO Director/Quality Manager DG
	Failure to successfully address the condition that led to the suspension may result in withdrawal of part or all of the scope of accreditation by BAB.
4.6.3	Suspension for Cause
	BAB reserves the right to determine the period of suspension for accreditation depending on the severity of nonconformity or nonconformities against BAB accreditation criteria and conditions. If the non-conformance is not corrected within an agreed timeframe, or if the non-conformance is very serious, the accreditation – or part of it- can be suspended until such time as the non-conforming condition has been successfully addressed.

Examples of serious non-conformance:

- a) No traceability of measurement.
- b) Unacceptable results from inter-laboratory comparisons (ILC) or proficiency tests (PT) or other qualified tests.
- c) Loss of ability to demonstrate competence because of changes in personnel or changes in the qualifications of key personnel.
- d) Lacking of implementation of needed corrections and corrective actions within a specified time limit.
- e) Production of multiples of invalid results of tests, calibrations, certifications, or inspections, which show serious errors in the quality system.
- f) Misuse of the accreditation, its mark, or any Breach of the Terms and Conditions of Accreditation.
- g) Non-compliance to relevant legal requirements
- h) Changes of a laboratory's premises, regarding moving/rebuilding will normally lead to suspension. The same can in some cases be the result for changes in the CAB.

4.6.4	Voluntary Suspension: A CAB can ask to be suspended on voluntarily. If the CAB itself finds that the requirements for accreditation are not being fulfilled, or a laboratory may be moving to new premises. The consequences of a suspension will be the same regardless of the suspension being voluntary or not. BAB may accept voluntary suspensions for a period up to one year. If the suspension last for a longer period, a new application for accreditation has to be presented. When the accreditation or parts of it is suspended, the CAB shall not offer or perform accredited services for the suspended activities as long as the suspension lasts. Accredited calibration-certificates/test reports shall not be issued within the area that is included in the suspension. Suspensions can be time limited to 3 months, but BAB can prolong it for as long as is needed to address non-conforming conditions or conditions which may affect the integrity of BAB accreditation. The accreditation will be re-established by BAB if the conditions that caused the suspension are addressed in a satisfactory way. If the non-conforming condition is not corrected within a specific time limit, the accreditation will be withdrawn. When the accreditation or parts of it are suspended, BAB may require that the CAB informs affected customers about the consequences. Already paid fees are not returned when a CAB is suspended. The CAB has to pay all accumulated costs. Before decision on suspension, the CAB shall normally be notified by written information and shall be given the opportunity to give comments. However, for very serious situations BAB has the possibility to effectuate suspensions immediately. Appeals on decisions on suspensions can be made by the CAB as per the respective BAB appeal procedure. BAB will notify the suspended CABs to take appropriate measure for lifting suspension. In case of non response from CABs BAB will take proper measure(s) as per Bangladesh Accreditation Act 2006.	CO Director/Quality Manager DG
4.6.5	Withdrawal of accreditation If the CAB does not want, or is not able to correct the non-conforming conditions within the time limit, or the non-conformance is so serious that the CAB no longer has the necessary qualifications to carry out accredited services, the accredited scope or parts of the scope will be withdrawn. Upon withdrawal of the accreditation, the CAB is required to return the accreditation certificate and the accreditation documents to BAB. If only parts of the accreditation are withdrawn, the CAB shall hand over to BAB accreditation documents. BAB will modify the	CO Director/Quality Manager DG

	CAB's published scope of accreditation accordingly. The CAB shall no longer offer to carry out accredited services within the areas withdrawn. If the accreditation is fully or partially withdrawn, the CAB shall, in writing, inform clients concerned about the consequences. In the case of withdrawal, paid fees will not be refunded. The CAB has a duty to pay all incurred costs. Before a decision to withdraw accreditation can be made, the CAB will be given notice decisions concerning actions can be made by the CAB through BAB appeal procedure.	CO Director/Quality Manager DG QP05 Disputes and Appeals
4.6.6	Notice of voluntary termination of accreditation An accredited CAB may voluntarily terminate its accreditation with notice. The notice must be in writing. By termination of an accreditation, BAB has the right to decide if actions should be taken to verify what has been performed as accredited services since the last surveillance. The extent of the actions will depend upon the period of time and the number of accredited services from the last assessment until the termination.	CO Director/Quality Manager DG
